Description :

PDF-24f48 | Dewey Soper first travelled to the Arctic in 1923.

During the next seven years he accepted three research postings on Baffin Island, each of which lasted between one and two years. In 1929 he discovered the breeding grounds of the blue goose in the southwest corner of Baffin Island. He also charted the final unknown region of Baffin Island's coastline. Later in life he worked in the western Arctic... Arctic Naturalist: The Life of J. Dewey Soper
