Description :

PDF-68c61 | The United States currently has the largest prison population on the planet. Over the last four decades, structural unemployment, concentrated urban poverty, and mass homelessness have also become permanent features of the political economy. These developments are without historical precedent, but not without historical explanation. In this searing critique, Jordan T. Camp traces the rise of the n... Incarcerating the Crisis: Freedom Struggles and the Rise of the Neoliberal State (American Crossroads)
