Description :

PDF-c959b | In 1860 fourteen-year-old Nathaniel Ransom followed his five older brothers into the dank foc sle of a whaling vessel. For fifteen years he hunted seventy-ton bowheads in Arctic waters, for the many uses of bone, blades of flexible baleen from the leviathan s enormous jaw, raised its value, even as petroleum replaced whale oil as a source of lighting. In 1871 Ransom survived the loss of thirty-two... Oil, Ice & Bone: Arctic Whaler Nathaniel Ransom
