Description :

PDF-54962 | Inspired by the pathbreaking work of Howard Zinn, A People's Art History of the United States is propelled by a democratic vision of art, showing that art doesn't just belong within the confines of museums and archives. In fact, art is created every day in the street and all around us, and everyone deserves to be a part of it. Called "important" by renowned art critic Lucy Lippard, A Peopl... A People's Art History of the United States: 250 Years of Activist Art and Artists Working in Social Justice Movements
