Description :

PDF-b72e1 | In the summer of 1942 Britain and the United States of America jointly agreed to provide massive quantities of arms and other vital war supplies to bolster Soviet Russia's struggle against Hitler's invasion. As might be expected, the bulk of these cargoes were carried in British and American merchant ships, with naval escorts. Equally predictably, the leaders of Nazi Germany ordered that these alli... The Road to Russia: Arctic Convoys 1942
